

Are you a Writer?

Clun Town Council with Chapel Lawn is running a writing competition for local residents and will be giving prizes for the best entries.

The Council is looking for a piece of writing on the subject: "What I Like About Where I Live?" The writing may be prose, poetry or in any other format or style that the author chooses provided that it is no longer than 250 words.

The competition is open to anyone living in the Civil Parish of Clun. Entries will be judged by an independent panel and prizes will be awarded for the best three pieces of writing in each of the following age ranges:

- 11 and under: prize winners will each receive a Book Token worth £25
- 12 to 16: prize winners will each receive a Book Token worth £25
- 17 and over: prize winners will each receive a cash prize of £40

If you would like to enter, either:

- 1) send your entry in electronic form (as a PDF image) to Darren Knipe, the Town Council Clerk, at clunclerk@live.co.uk; or
- 2) drop a written or printed copy into the collection boxes in Spar or Bright Flowers.

Entries (which must also provide your name and contact details and state the age range to which you belong) must be received no later than 17:00 on Friday, 5th July 2019.

The results of the competition will be announced on Friday 26th July and the Town Council Clerk will contact the winners. The prizes will be presented at the Clun Carnival on Saturday 3rd August.

Full Terms and Conditions can be found on the Town Council's Website: <http://www.clun-chapellawn.org.uk/>.
